EARLY WORLD OF LEARNING AND EBSCO eBooks

Early World of Learning, World Book Online's early childhood digital resource, is a child's first encyclopedia, eBook, and introduction to core early concepts. With read-aloud across all functions, the 60 stories in "World of Reading" and "Trek's Travels" tie learning together through videos, games, and printable activities. Twelve stories are available in both Spanish and English, and the worksheets also offer written instructions in Spanish. Classic songs, nursery rhymes, and fairy tales complete the program, and are often included in the lesson plan for each story.

EBSCO eBooks K-12

The eBook K-8 Collection contains more than 13,000 titles chosen to support a quality learning experience for K-8 students across all subject areas taught in elementary and middle schools, and content aligns with Common Core Curriculum Standards (for participating U.S. states). The collection also features a selection of teacher resources to support educators and administrators.

eBook Cricket Media Collection

The eBook Cricket Media Collection includes more than 400 titles in e-book format and is suitable for Children grades Pre-K through 8th. Cricket is an internationally recognized education company with award winning print content for children, families and educators. Cricket is focused on engaging children in a wide variety of subjects and disciplines helping them explore and expand their worlds.

HOMESCHOOL HELP

Homework Help from Credo

This service is found on our website under eResources. The service is free to all library card holders. When accessing homework help you will need to have your library card number.

Homework Help provides 3rd -

12th graders with additional support in reading, writing, math, and science. The service pairs students with a state-certified teacher in a virtual classroom. Using an online whiteboard and chat window, students and teachers work one-on-one in real time to solve homework problems, edit papers or expand on lessons taught in school. Homework Help is accessible at school, the library or from home through our website.

BANNED BOOK WEEK SEPTEMBER 23-29

Banned Books Week 2018 is September 23-29. It brings together the entire book community — librarians, booksellers, publishers, journalists, teachers, and readers of all types — in shared support of the freedom to seek and to express ideas, even those some consider unorthodox or unpopular.

The books featured during Banned Books Week have all been targeted with removal or restricted in libraries and schools. By focusing on efforts across the country to remove or restrict access to books, Banned Books Week draws national attention to the harms of censorship.

Books are still being banned and challenged today. A challenge is an attempt to remove or restrict materials, based upon the objections of a person or group. A banning is the removal of those materials.

While books have been and continue to be banned, part of the Banned Books Week celebration is the fact that, in a majority of cases, the books have remained available. This happens only thanks to the efforts of librarians, teachers, students, and community members who stand up and speak out for the freedom to read. (<http://www.ala.org/advocacy/bbooks/banned>)

NANOWRIMO IS COMING THIS NOVEMBER

“There is no greater agony than bearing an untold story inside you.”

Maya Angelou

Are you ready to write? NaNoWriMo is coming to the library this November. What is NaNoWriMo? It is a fun challenge to write a 50,000 word novel in a month. Starting on November 1st you will have until 11:59 pm on November 30th to complete this goal.

The Bowling Green Branch will be a writing center for this fun challenge. In the meeting room you will find inspirational quotes and ideas to spur you along to your 50,000 word goal.

There will be events throughout the month of November at Bowling Green to keep you writing. To kick off this month of writing there will be a party at the Bowling Green Branch at 5:30 pm. On November 20th at 4 pm the Adult Writing group will meet to help push you to the end of the challenge. Finally, on Saturday, December 1st at 10:30 am there will be a TGIO (Thank Goodness It is Over) brunch at Bowling Green to celebrate making it through the challenge.

To learn more and sign-up online for the challenge go to <https://nanowrimo.org/>.

LEARNING THE ART OF CURSIVE

Writing in cursive is becoming a lost art. We would like to give you the tools to help you teach your children the art of cursive. Beginning in October and running through December we will have worksheets available to help you teach your children cursive. As your child progresses through the alphabet you can introduce additional worksheets that will help teach the formation of words using cursive.

In addition to worksheets we will have information for you on what is the best order in which to introduce cursive letters to your child. Information will also be available about upper and lower case cursive letters.

These worksheets and all of this information will be available free of charge. Once your child has mastered writing their name in cursive, have them stop by the library for a small prize.

STRONG MEN & WOMEN IN VIRGINIA HISTORY

The Library of Virginia has joined forces with Dominion Energy to form a new dynamic program. Dominion Energy's Strong Men & Women: Excellence in Leadership series and the Library of Virginia's African American Trailblazers in Virginia History are now one program — Strong Men & Women in Virginia History. This new program, which will operate in Virginia only, was inaugurated in January when eight honorees were announced for 2013.

Most components of the original programs remain the same: we still honor distinguished African-American leaders and there will be an annual student writing contest with awards to students and their schools.

Resource materials for Strong Men & Women in Virginia History are available online to Virginia-area schools through the Library of Virginia. For information visit the Library of Virginia's website at <http://www.lva.virginia.gov/public/smw/>.

NATIONAL FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY WEEK OCTOBER 21-27

How important are Friends groups? They can literally make the difference between a budget increase and cut for their libraries. Since the beginning of the American library movement, Friends groups have been formed by citizens using their collective powers to do everything from running a book sale to ensuring that our American library legacy remains viable. By contributing as a library Friend, you can make a lasting difference for your library. (<http://www.ilovelibraries.org/get-involved/become-library-friend>)

Caroline County Library has three Friends groups; Friends of the Caroline Library, Friends of the Dawn Library, and Friends of the Ladysmith Library. These groups are a valuable asset to our library system by providing funding for special projects, equipment and/or supplies the library needs. To become involved with one or all of these groups please stop by your favorite branch and we will be able to give you further information.
