READING BY DESIGN SUMMER READING 2017

We are 'Reading by Design' this summer at the library. Our summer reading program will run from June 12th until July 21st. We have some very exciting things planned for all ages this year from Loony Labs and Mini Einsteins for our preschool patrons; to Recycled Creations and Squeeze Painting for our 6-8 year old patrons; to an Artists Café and Frankenzombie Toys for our Tween and Teen patrons.

As you and your child set goals for this summer's reading, we would like to make a few suggestions.

For our youngest patrons, it may be best to set a goal for the number of minutes you will read to your child (e.g. 10 minutes a day.) For children who are beginning readers, we also suggest setting a number of minutes they will read to you as a goal. For older children, you and your child could decide to read a certain number of chapter books this summer, or if your child does not really enjoy reading, setting aside time each day that they dedicate to reading may more conducive to their summer reading.

Registration is taking place now at your favorite branch. Just stop by to get a reading log and a summer reading brochure.

We look forward to seeing you this summer at the library!

ADULT SUMMER READING CHALLENGE 2017

We have designed this year's challenge to allow you to choose the level you would like to participate in during the summer months. You will have from June 12th until August 4th to complete your challenge.

On August 7th we will enter all who completed their challenge goals into a system-wide drawing. One winner from each level (Reader, Scholar, and Bibliophile) will be drawn at random.

Prizes for each level will be:
 Reader - A Pair of Movie Tickets
 Scholar - Dinner for 2
 Bibliophile - Dinner and Movie Tickets for 2

GENRE OF THE MONTH CLUB

On tap this summer: Start your summer off in June with a suspense/thriller novel. Spend your July reading something in the historical non-fiction realm. Finally, for the lazy hot days of August, you can relax in the shade with a western.

If you are stumped for a good read, we are here to help!

Suspense/thriller books are great summer reads. Get lost in a world of intrigue where every turn of the page carries you deeper and deeper into the plot.

July

This July we challenge you to explore history. Does WWII interest you, the Civil War, Early American history, European History... the options are endless.

August

Not all Westerns are Zane Grey. Check out our displays and venture into the world of westerns, you may find out you enjoy this genre.

TWISTED FAIRY TALES FOR TEENS

Calling all 9-15 year olds! Your mission, if you choose to accept it, will be to write a Twisted Fairy Tale. We will give you a main character, and you can add as many additional characters as you would like. You will be provided with the setting in which your story must happen. To add to your story, we will also give you a weird twist. After you have written your tale, we have a few other things to add to your mission—come up with a catchy title, design a unique book cover, create a Snapchat mask of your main character, and take selfies with your mask on of things your main character did in your twisted tale.

Share your completed mission with the library by July 21st and be entered to win an Amazon gift card.

Which Virginia county is the Moonshine Capital of the World? The Library of Virginia's upcoming exhibition, Teetotalers & Moonshiners: Prohibition in Virginia, Distilled, will reveal that and more as it explores the impact of Prohibition on the Old Dominion. On November 1, 1916, Virginia's breweries and distilleries closed their doors as the state began a grand experiment in Prohibition. From that date until 1933, state inspectors and federal agents attempted to stem the flow of illicit alcohol to a thirsty populace. Newsreels of still-busting raids, music from the Jazz Age, and vintage stills will complement the archival record of the exploits of Virginia's Prohibition Commission. This exhibition is supported in part by the Virginia Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and the National Alcohol Beverage Control Association.
